

SYLVAIN LOICHET

This is the exciting new little négociant picked out by Jasper Morris for Berrys whose wines seen good value at Berrys' press tasting this autumn – until Berrys realised they'd got the prices wro

Sylvain Loichet, Les Gréchons Premier Cru 2006 Ladoix Blanc 17 Drink 2008-11

Very winning and glamorous. Lots of richness and intensity. Lemon cream! Well done. Pure user early drinking pleasure. In fact from his own vines but he does make some white from bought ir GV

£198 ib BBR

Sylvain Loichet, Aux Montagnes 2006 Côte de Nuits-Villages 16 Drink 2010-14

Quite rich and confident. Slightly rustic oaky edge - could do with very slightly more finesse but at the price! His own vines.

£120 ib BBR

Sylvain Loichet Grand Cru 2006 Clos de Vougeot 16.5 Drink 20

Deep crimson. This also comes from vines that he cultivates himself en metayage. Again slightly oak but one feels that another vintage will see it all come right.

£570 ib BBR